

Next Steps

1. Read Deuteronomy 6:8-9. The Israelites used visual symbols to remind them of God's position in their lives. What can you begin to do this week to spiritually mark your home as being God's?
2. What are you willing to do this week that intentionally sets a Christ-like example for someone in your family?

New River Prayer Requests

1. Please pray for our Costa Rica mission team as they minister in San Jose and Heredia, Costa Rica this week. Please pray specifically that they would be bold, compassionate, and that God would rest His hand strongly upon them.
2. Pray for families at New River to be strengthened and for men to lead their families.
3. Pray for your next door neighbors this week.
4. Pray for courage and boldness as we continue to expand our ministries here in Lake Wylie and work toward starting another campus.

Stand Alone Message
Father's Day Weekend
June 20 and 21, 2009

Suggested Scripture Reading This Week:
Deuteronomy 6

My takeaway from this message is:

2. Read Deuteronomy 6:4. Is it important to you that God be without rivals in your home? Why?

Community Group Discussion

Quick Overview

Looking back over your sermon notes, was there any particular point or passage of scripture that most challenged you, confused you, or caught your attention?

My Story

1. Describe the environment in which you grew up. How did your parents influence your spiritual direction?

4. Read Deuteronomy 6:6. Other than reading it, how can you become more immersed in the Bible? Why is it important to know what you believe and why you believe it?

Exploring

1. Read Deuteronomy 6:1-3. Moses gave these commands to the people of Israel just before they entered the Promised Land. What does God promise if the people obey his instructions? How does owning God's promise to your family impact generations that follow you?

5. Read Deuteronomy 6:7. What are some ways that you can lead the next generation to know God?
